Dedication

There are two teachers who we feel possess the qualities of devotion, intelligence, interest, aptitude, patience, understanding and receptiveness. Therefore, we proudly dedicate the 1973 Quill to Mrs. Wilma Anderson and Mr. Stanley Harris.

Retirement

To Eleanor Sweeney

If you get a skinned up knee
Mrs. Sweeney is the one to see.
If you've got a cut on your thumb
She'll make it feel better, by gum!
If you get a bump on your head,
With an ice pack, she'll put you to bed.
If you feel your insides churning,
With a waxed sack you're returning.
Running fast with a wall for a catcher
You'll be carried out on nurse's stretcher.
Her Career Club comes down on the fly
When nurse gets a squint at Dr. Bly.
Health records are filled-in in a wink;
Kids come marching plunk, plank, plink.
Eleanor may cause considerable din
When she's either locked out or in . . . .

We all know she loves a child,
Else why would one spend money so wild
At Christmas time on boots, mittens and such
For poor little people who need them much?
Such a nurse is hard to hire,
But Eleanor plans now to retire.
We want to honor her tonight
And hope her future's ever bright.
There'll be no more of slippery roads,
Or moving any heavy loads.
No more patient's troubles to ease;
We all hope your retirement's nice
And you don't have to go hunting for lice.

SUPERVISING PRINCIPAL

ROBERT UMIKER
VICE PRINCIPAL

LOUISE UPDYKE
DIRECTOR OF INSTRUCTIONAL SERVICES

To the Members of the Class of '73

To give advice is an easy task. To follow advice in one's own lifetime is a never ending goal for each and every one of us. How you "fair" in the lifetime you live depends on your personal effort each and every day. Never be concerned with failures but rather with each small success. Turn each success into a victory over the failures you may experience.

The faculty and staff of Richburg Central School join with me in wishing you every success in the future. As you read this letter, in the years to come, remember all of us at R.C.S. We are here to serve you if you are ever in need.

Best wishes,

Bruce T. Forness

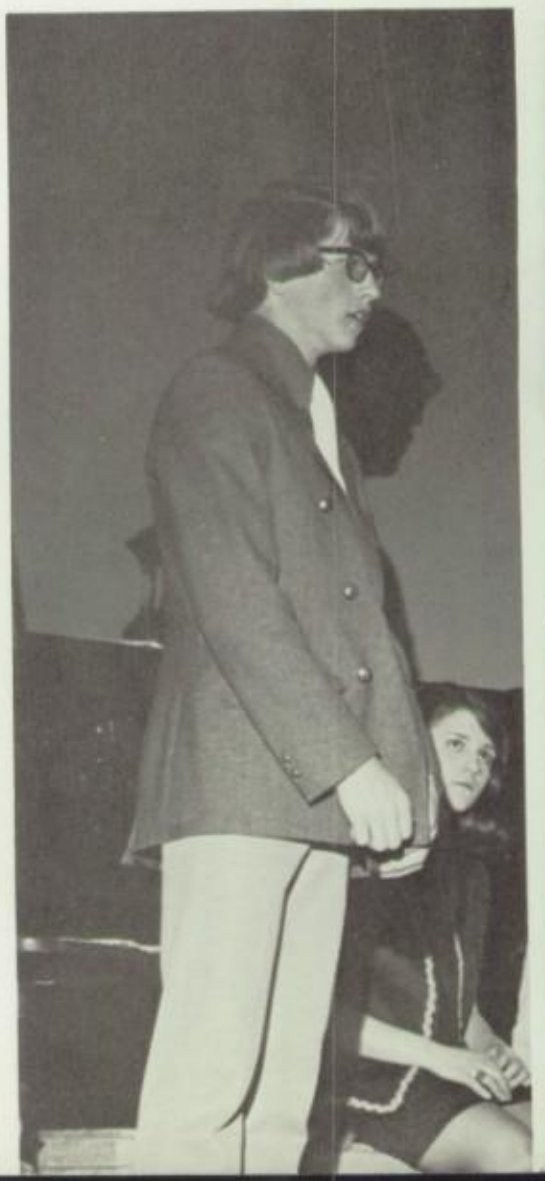
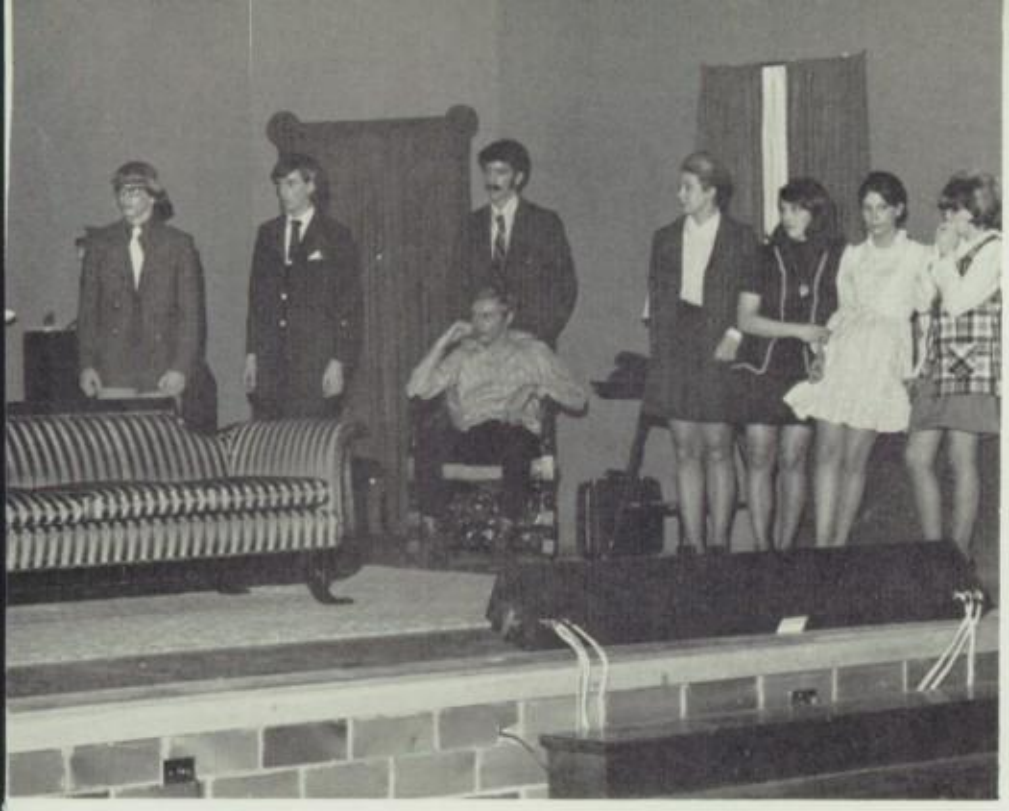
The Junior Play '72





SYRACUSE SOCIETY & STAGE LIGHTING

School Daze

In kindergarten we slid on slides and made messes with modeling clay;
And if we got a star for taking a nap, we were proud the whole long day.
In first grade we would brag around how we were big girls and boys;
We'd chase our friends and see who could make the loudest noise.

Second grade we segregrated to separate sides of the room;
To sit with "one of them" would be a certain doom.
Third grade we learned of 1492, and who Christopher Columbus was;
And how we cried when our best friend said there was no Santa Claus!

Fourth grade boys put rubber spiders in all of the girls chairs;
And we never walked, we ran, and we slid down all the stairs.
In fifth grade we used chicken wires for rings and started going steady;
Our favorite color was red and we all slurped when we ate spaghetti.

In sixth grade we told our parents, "We don't get report cards anymore!"
Paper airplanes were the rage, and we were all bombers in a 3rd world war.
Seventh grade the boys started wearing aftershave and the girls tried red lipstick;
Anyone who had a sucker gave his best friend half-a-lick.

Eighth grade we made darned sure we all were extra loud;
This was our last year in junior high and Boy! Were we proud!
Ninth grade we put away our teddy bears, and tried to settle down;
We went to every basketball game and started eating lunch in town.

Tenth grade we staged sit-ins and said everything was a gas;
We shut kids in broom closets and skipped out from Friday's Gym class.
As Juniors we realized we had only a year to go, and we were really bad;
We all stuck together and gave it all we had!

Now we're Seniors, and we know you won't mind if we have some fun;
Cause after all, this is our last year to get any mischief done!

Guess Who?

Answers on page 72.

Remember When . . .

. . . Amy cried over spilled paint.
. . . John got stuck in a chair in second grade.
. . . The seniors washed a semi at a car wash.
. . . Don B. lost his car.
. . . Lee and Steve let the snake loose in Biology.
. . . Dawn Giles dropped a pie crust on the floor (then picked it up and put it back on the pie).
. . . Emmy had to stand in front of the class with bubble gum on her nose.
. . . Mr. Cook ever had a clean desk.
. . . Steve Scott said it rained frogs. (He still believes it.)
. . . Steve Forness didn't know what yellow snow was.
. . . Nothing happened all year.
. . . Mr. Welch said Dave could make nitro.
. . . Beth beat Dave in wrestling. (He wasn't really trying!)
. . . Jane punched Mr. Forness in the stomach. (Kiddingly, kiddingly!)
. . . Morey entered the girl's gym class (in a towel!)
. . . Donna M. scared Kathy, Al, and John in Driver's Ed.
. . . Ellen M. ran into the garage.
. . . Craig, Don, John, and Steve Ganged up on Bruce G. in the sixth grade. (What a spanking!)

Class Will

I, EDNA WILLIAMS, do bequeath to BECKY POWELL my ability to sneak food out of the Food Room and still remain as Top Chef.

We, BOB SHERWOOD AND DEB BALDWIN, do bequeath to FRANK PAXHIA a roll of tape to be used in a way most advantageous to those around him.

I, ROBIN MOYER, do bequeath to DONNA MOSHER, nothing. Sorry, but that's all I've got to spare!

I, ROBIN MOYER, do bequeath to ELLEN MARSH my brother. May you have as much fun with mine as I'm having with yours.

I, AMY HARVEY, do bequeath to LUANNE FAULKNER the library. May she use it to more advantage than I did.

We, MAUREEN WARNER AND DIANNE PARKER, do bequeath to KANDY HADDEN, a yo-yo to pass the time away next year on the BOCES bus.

I, PATTI WILDER, do bequeath to DAVE MOSHER, a little teddy bear to keep him company in English class next year.

I, ELIZABETH RICHMOND, do bequeath to DAVE FORNESS, my ability to cut classes and still get a Class A Pass.

I, JANE NEUDECK, do bequeath to NANCY NEU, the last part of my name.

I, ROBIN POWELL, do bequeath to KIMM BURDICK, my ability to sneak into "you know where" at cheerleading practice.

I, EMMY LOVE, do bequeath to KATHY HOWARD, my ability to have fun at dances.

I, RONALD RIX, do bequeath to KEN SMITH, my ability to sleep with curlers in my hair and also a little of No-More Tangles cream rinse.

I, JAY MOYER, do bequeath to LARRY COOK, nothing because everything I have is too good for him.

I, DAVE MOYER, do bequeath to JERRY CHILDS, my ability to run the Basketball team.

I, CAROL BARTOO, do bequeath to CAROL PERKINS, my position on the Yearbook Staff to use as an excuse for skipping classes.

We, KAREN EMERSON AND MEL LYMAN, do bequeath to BONNIE MANNERS our ability to leave Steven alone during Chef's Club.

I, JOHN McELROY, do bequeath to BOB GOULD, my ability to get along with coach in health class.

I, AL FANCHER, do bequeath to JIM HAWKES, my ability to paly on Evingham's basketball team.

I, DON HENNINGS, do bequeath to WANDA BUTTON, a night out on the town, "Richburg!"

I, TERRY COLLINS, do bequeath to WARREN MOYER, my seat at the bars.

I, MATTHEW MARSH, do bequeath to ELLEN MARSH, my old jalopy; which has no fenders, no engine, and four deflated tires so she may practice driving without running into the garage.

We, TED HEWITT AND FERD REISMAN, do bequeath to MIKE ECK, our ability to survive Mr. Cook's English class.

Good Luck!
